SUBSTRATE

JUNE MMXXIII

A magazine of art for art's sake, and for the fuck of it.

No AI®. No Censorship®. No Ads®. No Influencers®. Just non-sponsored art.

Changes. Life is nothing but. Since the apocalyptic Plague year of 2020 the downturn in shoots has been dramatic. I used to routinely have 30 to 40+ shoots a year and now I'm lucky if I have 5. It has had a tsunami level ripple effect on my thoughts and hopes. Not being one to reminiscence I have been doing just that, reminiscing. I miss the beginning days way back in 2010 when I had no fucking clue as to what I was doing but having the best time doing it. Model Mayhem was the main meeting place and then Tumblr jumped in. It wasn't all business yet, it was kind of like the wild wild west, shit was getting worked out. There seemed to be a lot more of making art for art's sake. And now... umm, I'm not going to get into it too far, but everything has... shifted. Par for the course but still... it kinda sucks. Things are changing. To what, we'll see.
